2018 HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicant Must:

1. Be an active member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church; involved in at least one (1) ministry within one year of application date
2. Have an overall high school (grades 9-12) cumulative minimum grade point average of 3.0
3. Submit an official copy of high school transcript
4. Provide two (2) current letters of recommendation, written/dated within 6 months of application date
 - a. Ministry recommendation must come from a Servant Leader (not related to the applicant)
 - b. Academic recommendation must come from a teacher, counselor, etc. (not related to applicant)

Please Include with Application:

1. Typed, double-spaced, 250-500-word essay describing a major success and a failure that you have experienced in life, how you handled those situations and what was learned. Please be candid and share how the scenarios described are related to your future goals.
2. Recent, wallet-sized photo of applicant “dressed for success” in professional or business attire
3. Missions project proposal: In John 20:21, “Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you’” (NSRV). Applicants must propose an original idea for a community service project that they can implement. Applicants must focus on education, community-building, health or other related areas of interest. The ultimate goal is to serve and impact the community that has nurtured the applicant, past or present. This project must be executed by May 18, 2019. Ideas for missions projects: Volunteering with the FMBC/New Dawn Vallejo Summer of Success program, Homeless Outreach or Food Pantry

Application must be submitted or postmarked via mail, email or personal delivery by June 1, 2018 to:
